

House of Clarkson is a collection of six boutique retreats, each with its own unique visual identity. Sleeping 2–20 guests, these beautifully curated properties have been created with love, care, and design expertise.

From a Regency townhouse in Hastings to a luxurious canal boat in London, they offer the perfect backdrop for a wide range of stays.

Carrington House Snettisham, Norfolk

- Sleeps 18/20 in nir
- bedrooms
- Dog
- North Norfolk coast
- Hot tub

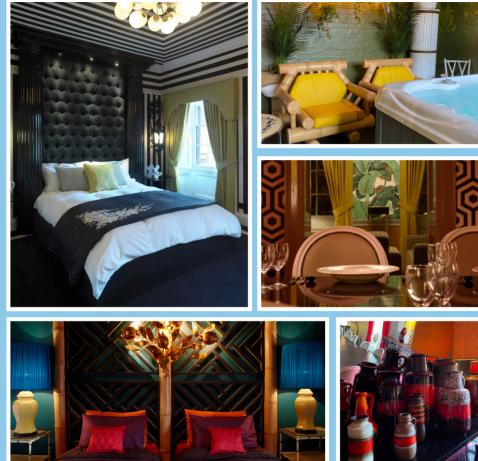

Central village locatio

Combining the facilities of a boutique hotel with the individuality of a historic Grade II-listed property, Carrington House has been radically transformed by House of Clarkson to offer a stylish venue for exclusive gatherings. Quirky, chic, and equipped with its own sound-proofed private nightclub in the basement, the house is ideal for anything from birthday celebrations to sophisticated hen parties.

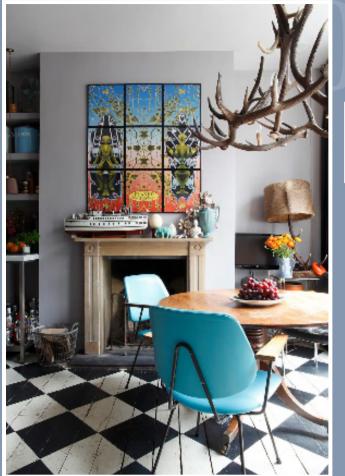

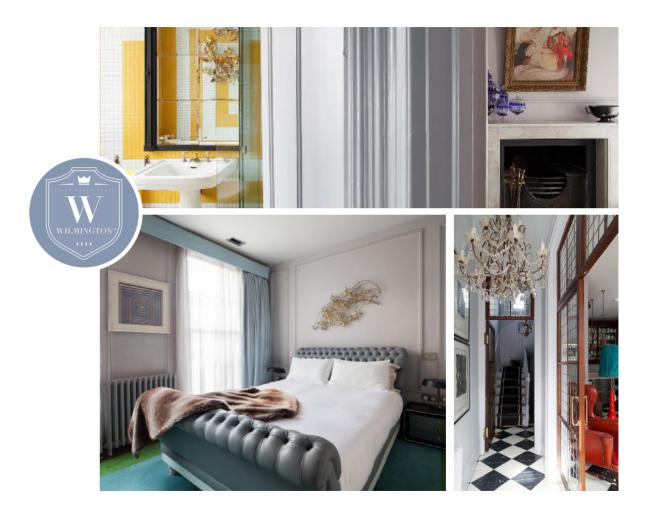

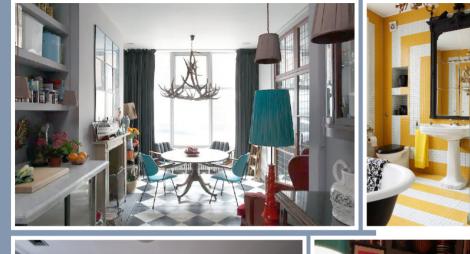

Wilmington Square Clerken Well, London

- Sleeps six
- Central London
- location

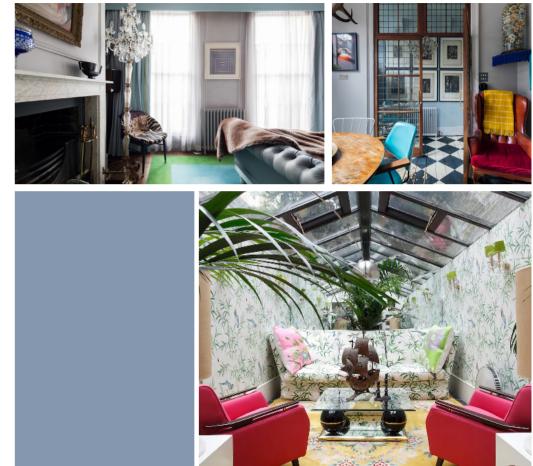

- Market
- Four-storey house
- Converted Georgian
 Unique interior dairy

Nestled in the heart of London's fashionable Clerkenwell, Yardley Street is a Grade II-listed period property. Arranged over four floors, with working fireplaces and statement chandeliers, it has a kitchen/dining room on the ground floor, a cosy cinema room, and a glass-ceilinged reception room in the basement. The house's central location makes it the perfect base for visitors to the capital.

Lofts on the Park Victoria Park, London

- Sleeps four/six
- Penthouse loft living
- Roof terrace
- Opposite the park
- fashionable East
- Secure parking space

Lofts on the Park is a penthouse apartment on two floors near London's Victoria Park. Set in a private gated community in a converted Edwardian school, it has an airy, open-plan layout and a terrace offering spectacular city views. Ideally located for the bars and restaurants of Hackney Wick and Homerton, it is also a short taxi-ride from London's 02 arena.

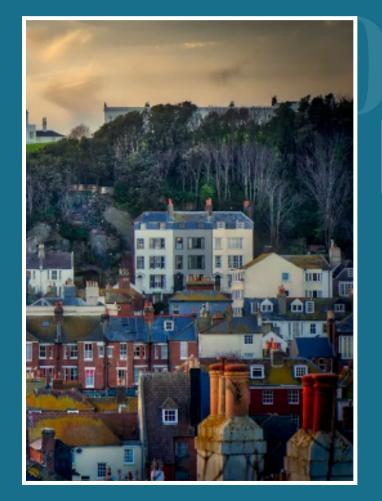

House in Hastings Old Town, Hastings

- Sleeps 10
- Five-storey Regency
 house
- Stunning views of Hastings Old Town
- Dog friendly

beach

• Grotto garden

• Short walk from the

The House in Hastings sits majestically on one of the town's most historic streets, Croft Road on West Hill. Gloriously glamorous and divinely decadent, it has five stunning bedrooms – with sea views on every floor – four bathrooms (plus two further cloakrooms), working fireplaces, a private terrace with sea view and expansive entertaining spaces, including a sitting room, cinema room and dining room that seats 10.

Georgian Russell Old Town, Hastings

- Sleeps six
- Dog friendly

• Spacious duplex

- Old Town location
 Located on vibrant George Street
- Near beach

Situated in the heart of Hastings's most vibrant neighbourhood, House of Clarkson's George Street apartment is the ultimate urban retreat. Arranged on two floors, this tongue-and-groovepanelled maisonette provides the perfect base from which to explore everything Hastings Old Town has to offer. It has three double bedrooms and three reception rooms offering ample space to

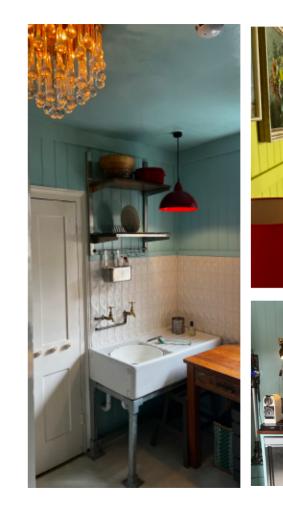

The Boat, Tolerance London Canals

Sleeps four

- Log burner
- Wide-beam canal boat •
- Central London private
 Sun d mooring

Located in a secure private mooring in East London's Limehouse Cut, Tolérance is a canal boat with a difference – a floating home-tel with décor reminiscent of a chic hotel suite. With its charming sun deck and cosy log burner, this bijou residence is the ultimate urban hideaway, and the ideal place to experience laid-back life on the water.

